A sincere welcome to our first 'all Charbray' sale.

FOLLOWING A WETTER than usual winter last year I guess this year's drier seasons could be expected.

Our move to full Charbray breeding has definitely seen our operation better positioned to handle these seasonal challenges. The manner in which the Charbray delivers under all conditions has strengthened our confidence in the breed to the point that this year, for the first time since our inception, we are declaring a single-breed sale:

60 select Charbrays, nothing but.

LIFE IS BUSY. Speaking mainly for myself, but others will probably agree, we rush at life, like a bull at a gate, task by task. Fortunately it is my habit to usually carry a camera around, and I like to snap many occasions which might otherwise be a fleeting memory quickly driven from mind by more pressing thoughts. At this time, when we are putting together our catalogue, (perhaps the main mission of our year) those snapshots come out to be showcased in the pages of our little booklet. They always produce a smile, a fond reminder of the contact we've enjoyed with fellow breeders, valued clients and other friends. These are the times throughout the year we allowed ourselves to 'smell the roses' as the old cliché goes.

And that's my sincere hope (apart from a cracker sale of course), to look forward to smelling the roses with friends and clients, old and new, following our 2017 sale.

We hope you feel most welcome at our sale, that you find many Charbrays to your liking in the catalogue, that your purchases bring great outcomes for your operations, and just as importantly, that we enjoy good productive conversation and conviviality as fellow breeders focused on a common cause: Beef to market — more kilos, faster, and easier.

MATT WELSH (on behalf of the Welsh Families, Huntington Stud)

the real world

Towards the end of last year Luke and Matt Welsh had the pleasure of touring the Roper Downs operation of Will Davidson and family, Middlemount, Queensland.

Plenty of familiar bodies were seen — many Huntington bulls working over a large-scale full-Charbray breeding program, and the consistency and ease-of-management advantages that can be expected were there in plain view. The Davidsons' is a real success story of astute decision making and trusting in the 'real world' winning attributes of Charbray cattle. >>

WILL DAVIDSON WITH MOTHER, TONI; GRANDFATHER NEVILLE (RIGHT) AND LUKE WELSH.

Roper Downs: 'Charbray all the way'

<< The impressive Roper Downs operation is a tribute to the good cattlemanship and hard work of Will Davidson and family and, as a result, the demand for their quality all-Charbray product is gaining momentum. This year, Will says, Roper Downs sold a draft of 356 weaner steers, averaging $4/kg (an average weight of 285kg or $1140 a head). The sisters of these steers sold to $1075 a head.

Happy retirement 'old man'

—by Matt Welsh

SOME OF ZEKI'S MOST RECENT PROGENY

In 2007, at the RNA, a judge said about Huntington Zeki (pictured) he was worried about his longevity. At the time I said to myself, 'Well, if you're right, then I'm worried about our's too,' because I loved that bull. I believed in him, and all I wanted to do was breed more like him, with all his fine attributes. By then, we at Huntington were ready to get behind Charbrays, all the way. Zeki (P) was top priced bull at our 2007 bull sale and has worked at a number of studs including some time back at Huntington before going on to the Zeimer Family Cedar Park Charbrays, Mt Larcom.

Fast forward a decade and a call came from Glen Zeimer saying that, sadly, he doesn't think he will get Zeki out again this spring. He forwarded some photos of his last calves, weaners and young sires. Glen also has a top sire catalogued at the National Sale this year by Zeki and added: "we got a few more years out of him than we thought we would".

Fair enough, I thought, all good things must come to an end, but 10 years is not a bad innings for a bull with a 'doubtful' future who's put as many runs on the board as he has.

Kilos matters

Mike Teelow (pictured with wife Harmony and daughter Kym) at the family's Amboss Stud thinks and acts decisively. On the recommendation of Ron McKenna, he purchased Huntington Louie this year for $20,000 to use over his Charbray herd with the principal aim of producing big and fast maturing cattle. He agrees that functional attributes are important, but added "always remember, we're paid for kilos." Mike hasn't as yet laid eyes on Louie, but he is reassured by Ron McKenna's judgement and the feedback he's received from Beef Breeding Services who've been busy collecting semen from Louie. "I've been told he's one of the best beef-breeding bulls that have come through their centre for a lot of years," Mike said.

It's a great life, producing and selling Charbray genetics, and no aspect of the industry is more rewarding than the times we enjoy with fellow breeders. Whether it's at some event, at our sale, on the phone, on Facebook, or at a client's farmgate, these are the moments that remind us we wouldn't be in any other game for quids. Here are a few snaps of the friendly faces we met up with delivering cattle following last year's sale.

Hail a Charbray gladiator

This is Huntington Maximus, a young sire retained this year at Huntington. This young fellow is the type we believe will carry the flag for the Charbray breed as it continues to grow and win new support among modern-thinking commercial cattle producers.

New season sire 1

THIS IS HUNTINGTON KICKBACK K208 (PS), ONE OF THREE NEW SEASON SIRS WE ARE INTRODUCING IN THIS CATALOGUE. ALL THREE DEMONSTRATE THE CHARBRAY CONSISTENCY WE DEMAND THAT IS SO IMPORTANT TO OUR BUYERS.

New season sire 2

OUR SECOND NEW SEASON SIRE INTRODUCED IN THIS CATALOGUE: ACTON KENILWORTH. CONSISTENCY, SO IMPORTANT TO OUR BUYERS, IS ALWAYS UPPERMOST IN OUR BREEDING PHILOSOPHY AND HERE IS ANOTHER FINE EXAMPLE.

Ka-ching! is the catchy new sound of Honky-Tonk...

...and it's a note that is very Fashionable too!

$9,142 average for seven bulls sold at the 2016 Nationals by Trevor and Lolita Ford of Wattlebray Charbrays would also put some spring in the dance feet. Trevor reports that they've now sold four Huntington Fasionable sons at a $15,000 average.

Monto Country and Cattle Day, a real winner!

BEV AND ROY MARBACH'S WINNING HEIFERS

The tremendous effort by Brad and Donna McNally of Monto Cattle and Country who organised and ran this event in May deserves all-round praise and applause. It is fantastic to be involved in these Charbray Society events and the whole day turned out a real winner for all who participated!

The individual winners of the Huntington Charbrays sponsored class were Bev and Roy Marbach who then went on to also win the Champion Pen of Females.

New season sire 3

CONSISTENCY IS KEY. WE ARE PLEASED TO INTRODUCE SPRING VILLA 874, ANOTHER NEW SEASON SIRE AT HUNTINGTON, AND A FINE EXAMPLE OF THE TYPE THAT CONTINUES TO CONSOLIDATE CONSISTENCY, SO IMPORTANT TO OUR BUYERS.

Starting off on the right Leggart

A thumb's up for new sire. Anthony and Kylie Curtis of Wellcamp Charbrays sent these snaps of heifers and calves, a promising start to a productive working life for Huntington Leggart, left, purchased at the 2016 Huntington Sale for $11,000.

It was a pleasure during the past year to travel to Charbray Society events as far afield as Bowen (top and right), and also to have the opportunity to host a visit from society identities at Huntington (below). There is nothing we like more than 'Talkin' Charbray'.

Commerce justifies his name

Huntington Commerce (pictured at bottom for sale in 2009 and as he is in the paddock at Spring Villa today), still a production powerhouse at 10 years, has definitely proved his worth in commercial terms.

By Huntington Yogi, Commerce was our top priced bull in 2009 when purchased by Kerod Lindley, Spring Villa Charbrays, Woven.

His influence on the Charbray breed has been well established, having been used extensively in other Charbray studs around the country and has gone on to leave a trail of top quality progeny including three sons working back here at Huntington.
